Easter at Rome.

ROME April 20 --At the Easter reception of cardinals to day Pope Leo dwelt upon the strength and vitality of the pontificate He said the war which has been declared against the papacy from the earliest times continues with undiminished fierceness Trusting in God we are ready to carry on the warfare and to uphold the rights of the church The pontiff concluded by expressing the hope that the erring children would finally submit

Gen Grant in Florence.

FLORENCE April 20 --Gen Grant to day visited the art galleries of Uffizi and Pitti palaces and attended the religious ceremonies of holy Saturday

Egypt Paying her Debt

ALEXANDRIA April 21 --In consequence of the remonstrances of the great powers the Egyptian government has paid $550 000 the amount of judgments obtained against it in the tribunals by creditors

The Great Strike in England.

LONDON, April 21 --A numerously attended meeting of delegates of the amalgamated association of operative spinners winders and other classes of operatives held at Manchester to-day unanimously passed a resolution that the meeting while deeply sympathizing with the efforts to resist the proposed reduction of wages, deploring the distress that will ensue hereby instructs the men to accept the terms offered until more favorable opportunity presents itself It is understood however, that the meeting did not resolve to refuse to support those who may persist in the strike

CONGRESSIONAL.

House.

WASHINGTON April 20

The House went into committee of the whole on the postal appropriation bill

The appropriation for post route maps was increased from 25 000 to 40 000

Blount offered a substitute regarding the pay of fourth class postmasters giving them all of the box rent commission on unpaid postage collected receipts from waste paper and postage stamps and cards cancelled in matter actually mailed at their offices provided they do not receive over $250 from any one quarter exclusive of money order commissions

Hewitt of Alabama moved to make the compensation same as now

Cannon favored Blount's amendment as a check on the dishonesty now practiced by which the government loses millions annually

Blount's amendment was agreed to

The provision for special mail agents was stricken out and the committee rose

Tucker from the ways and means committee reported a bill taxing tobacco incomes etc but White objected to making it a special order and it was referred to the committee of the whole

Glover made a personal explanation, denying the statements of the New York Tribune that his investigating committee had found that $5 000 had been loaned out of funds belonging to the house to a member of congress No such thing had ever been heard of

Conger attempted to show that the charge was against a member of congress but Glover said it was against the sergeant at arms, and so far as his committee was concerned the story was wholly unfounded Adjourned

OREGON

In Umatilla county 3 000 acres of flax will be grown this year

Outstanding interest bearing orders of Douglas county amount to $9 907 78

There was not a single case before the grand jury of Lane at the recent session of the circuit court

In Umatilla where the Republicans have no chance with the straight ticket, they are zealous independents

Never in the history of Roseburg has there been such a rush of improvements as at the present time Lumber is in demand on every corner

The Chinese at Roseburg, who robbed Marks safe told on each other and that's how the money was recovered Three of them are certainly booked for the penitentiary

Letter from Drain Several houses will be built here this summer also two brick kilns With a narrow gauge railroad to Scottsburg the county divided the county seat here Drain will be one of the places looked for

WASHINGTON TERRITORY

A succession of cold nights and warm days has made sad havoc with the fruit crop in nearly every part of the territory

About one third of the voters of the territory attended the polls at the late election for delegates to the constitutional convention

A sawmill will be erected at Deception Pass between Whidby and Fidalgo Islands The current there is very strong, and the mill will be driven by the tide

Col Wood one of Hayes Ohio friends recently appointed Indian agent at Quinalt went over to the coast a few days ago to take charge and relieve Mr Gordon Henry who resigned the position some time ago

Some little interest is being manifested at different places on the Sound in regard to the proposition to have our signal service extended to Port Townsend The people at Seattle and Mayor Weed in particular seem to be [illegible] the matter properly brought before [illegible] at Washington

Eastern Wool Market

NEW YORK April 20 --[illegible] to the extent of [illegible] Boston [illegible] [illegible] 000 lbs full

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK April 20 --Stocks were [illegible] excited and unsettled [illegible] declined from [illegible] to [illegible] The general belief was that the whole movement was a swoop

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

A Compromise

[illegible] April 20 --A telegram from [illegible] says England and Russia have agreed to the principle of the simultaneous withdrawal of the British fleet and the Russian troops from the neighborhood of Constantinople [illegible] the points to which they will withdraw are [illegible] decided upon

Caucasian Army Disbanded

TIFLIS April 20 --General Melikoff will leave here for St Petersburg to-morrow The Caucasian army corps is to be disbanded

Five Steamers Chartered.

LONDON April 20 --The Indian government has chartered five steamers for the conveyance of troops from India Their primary destination is Port Said Two of the vessels are engaged for two months One of the steamers is capable of carrying a full regiment

Formation of the Baltic Fleet

LONDON April 20 --The United Service Gazette says there will be a strong combined channel and Baltic fleet formed during the next two months

The Hitch and what Caused It

The Times Vienna correspondent is evidently unaware of the hitch in negotiations for the congress but considers the change of ministry in Turkey a new element of danger as Ahmed Vefik Effendi's presence in the cabinet was a guarantee that nothing would be attempted against England His sudden removal looks as though the Russians endeavored to steal a march on England while negotiations for a settlement were pending The week closes with prospect of the Eastern difficulty no brighter

Who is Responsible

ST PETERSBURG April 20 --A correspondent throws the responsibility of the alleged failure of the German mediation on England in having rejected the proposal that the congress should be summoned to revise the treaties of 1856 and 1871 and again insisted on her original condition

New Difficulties.

It is certain that new difficulties have arisen It is said that negotiations may continue and still lead to a satisfactory result but the present delay shows that the former divergence of views is again apparent

Removal of the Grand Duke.

SAN STEFANO April 20 --Nothing is known here of the recall of Grand Duke Nicholas from the command of the army

Naval Reserves Called Out

ST PETERSBURG April 20 --An order is officially published that the necessary number of men be called out from the naval reserve to form three corps of sailors for service in the fleet two of which are to be stationed at Cronstadt and the third at Nicolaieff

The Sky Brighter but not Clear

LONDON April 20 --The week closes with the prospects of eastern difficulty no brighter The belief that Bismarck has contrived a form of invitation regarding all objections and soothing all susceptibilities seemed to be corroborated by the news from Vienna that the parliamentary business of the Austro-Hungarian government was being pushed forward in order to set Count Andrassy at liberty to attend the congress and in the suggestion that the powers should meet to consider how in consequence of the facts which occasioned the treaty of San Stefano the treaties of 1855 and 1871 should be modified There had it was hoped been found a recognition at one of the treaties for which England contended and the claim of Russia that her achievements in the late war should be respected but as the Times states, however hopeful such suggestions may appear everything depends on the specific form in which they are presented and it seems this has not borne the test of strict consideration It is possible Russia attaches some reserve to her consent to discuss all the clauses of the treaty of San Stefano and that she cannot be brought to recognize distinctly the claim of the great powers to a voice in all new arrangements which affect the eastern question

Situation at Constantinople.

LONDON, April 20 --The situation in and around Constantinople attracts much attention A Vienna dispatch says the ministerial crisis is viewed with misgivings as capable of introducing a disturbing element into the negotiations Whatever may be the course of the crisis and whatever may have so suddenly determined its final issue the removal of Ahmed Vefik Effendi is sufficient to indicate the character of the changes It would nevertheless perhaps be premature to say that Russian influence has now become paramount in the cabinet It rather looks as if the object of the change had been to check two extreme tendencies and at the same time the friction thereby caused between them in the cabinet decision of the struggle between England and Russia for influence in Constantinople has thus apparently been postponed The relative position of the two can scarcely be said to remain unaltered since with Ahmed Vefik Effendi as premier England had the key of influence in the cabinet and was thus as it were in possession Now however this security is in a great measure gone while there is some danger that if in their endeavor to prevent a collision the new ministry should make some concessions to Russia the British embassy may be the last to know thereof A far wider field is thus opened to suspicion and misunderstanding and consequently to accidents

A Pera correspondent writing on the military situation at the Turkish capital says although many things warrant the supposition that the Turks would fight to keep the Russians out of Constantinople they have not distinctly made up their minds to do so but admitting a theoretical intention on the part of the Turks to resist Russian occupation it does not appear that the 90 000 Ottoman soldiers around the capital are an insuperable barrier to surprise The Russians know very well that if they wait to make a coup de main until war is declared the chances against them will be much heavier than if they make it beforehand They have everything at their command force money diplomacy and intrigue It does not require a very lively imagination to conceive how when Russia has made up her mind that it is necessary to come into Constantinople she will secure her prize Restlessness in the Russian camp is increasing every day The temper of the whole camp is one of almost irrepressible fretfulness Anything is better than to sit still rotting in filth dreaming vainly of home and watching for death, sowing and reaping, and according to reports which I believe to be true the peaceful spirit has fled from the camp and the idea of war is again welcome With this spirit abroad and as far as I can learn it is not confined to the less reflective or irresponsible ranks of the army it must not be overlooked that the temptations to a coup de main are very great Important if True.

ST PETERSBURG April 20 --The Agence Russe says that if the news of the withdrawal of Russians and British from the vicinity of Constantinople is authentic it shows that an important phase of the negotiations is reached under Germany's powerful influence

VIENNA April 21 --The Abend Post says [illegible] the same news that the congress is [illegible] more probable under to-day's favorable news

English Troops for Malta

BOMBAY April [illegible] The first brigade will embark for Malta on the [illegible]

Wiring the Sea

ATHENS April [illegible] The British government is making arrangements for laying a special cable from Greece to Malta

Waning Probabilities

VIENNA April 21 [illegible] [illegible]

Washington [illegible] says that [illegible] the presidency [illegible] He is only making an effort [illegible] the world before setting [illegible] [illegible] It is precisely the way that [illegible] used to talk

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

CALIFORNIA

The Turf

SAN FRANCISCO April 20 --At the Bay District track to day [illegible] was backed to trot twenty miles with a [illegible] wagon [illegible] The horse [illegible] won in 56 07 coming in fresh the best time on record Officers of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals were present but found no ground for interference

Workingmen's Military Company

The German speaking section of the workingmen's party met to-night at Humboldt hall and organized a military company with about sixty members The officers were particular to give out that the company was not provided with arms but observation leads to the belief that such is not the case

Weather

Rained lightly during the evening with prospect of more before morning

The Sonora Railway

SAN FRANCISCO April 20 --A San Diego dispatch says the Union's special from Tucson states that Robert [illegible] leading promoter and Howard Schuyler engineer of the Sonora railway system arrived from Guaymas, having made a careful preliminary reconnoissance of the routes from Mazatlan to Arizona They find three available routes two with scarcely any obstacles of consequence A route had also been examined eastward through Sonora and Chihuahua with the purpose of first building a road to connect with northern and eastern lines approaching El Paso and next with Arizona With some change granted in the present concession now being considered active steps to an early construction would be taken

Mortuary Report

SAN FRANCISCO April 20 The smallest number of deaths of any week for several months was recorded at the health office this week [illegible] No new cases of smallpox have been reported for several weeks and the two inmates of the Twenty Sixth street hospital will shortly be discharged Diphtheria does not figure in the report this week

Another Murder

SAN DIEGO April 20 --The Union's special from Campo has another horrible murder to report Last night the news came that Mr Alford Noyes was found dead Early this morning Justice Griswold and Constable [illegible] started for the scene They arrived at Grapevine canyon where the man lived and found several neighbors collected It appears from signs that he had been attacked early on the morning of the 18th before he had dressed, immediately at the door of the house and the fight continued for about fifteen feet from the door where the body lay It appears that the only weapon used was a knife of some kind Both of Noyes hands and arms were badly cut and all about the head and throat was very horribly lacerated severing the jugular vein Both sides of his head were literally sliced all to pieces No wounds were found on his body but one hundred were on his hands arms neck and face

Bones in the Lecture Room

Run Over and Killed.

Frank Spearman native of Ireland aged 45 was run over by one of the dummies on California street railroad early this evening and killed

An unknown man was run over by a car of the Folsom street line this evening sustaining injuries likely to prove fatal

An Absconder on his Travels

A Valparaiso correspondent of the Call writes that Charles F Barth formerly clerk in the U S quartermaster's office of this city and who absconded some time in the latter part of 1876 a defaulter to the amount of about $50 000 arrived at Valparaiso January 1877 from Tahiti on the bark Laura remained there a few days and left for the German settlement near Mendoza

Verdict of Death from Strangulation

SAN FRANCISCO April 19 --In the case of Mrs Lydia O'Neill found hanging in her house in Oakland the jury this evening found a verdict of death from strangulation No new developments in the case

Saved from the Wreck

SAN FRANCISCO April 21 --The schooner Golden Gate Capt Winant has returned from the wreck of the steamer City of San Francisco with about $16 000 in silver bullion recovered by divers The expedition was fitted out by Capt Winant at the solicitation of two divers James Steele and Daniel McGlade They report the wreck a confused mass and the cargo ruined The recovery of the bullion was attended with great risk on account of the exposed position of the sunken steamer

NEVADA

No Bail

EUREKA April 20 --Jesse Bigelow slayer of Gus Bolto was held to await the action of the next grand jury and remanded to custody the court refusing to accept bail

Suicide.

Edward Dunn 28 years of age a native of Rome N Y and a recent arrival in Eureka was found this morning hanging to an ox frame Failure to obtain work and despondency was the motive of the suicide

RAILROAD MATTERS AT WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, D C APRIL [illegible]

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

There has been much talk at the capital about the bill reported on Monday by Mitchell from the senate railroad committee proposing the amended bill in relation to the extension of the time for the construction of the Northern Pacific railroad, and the talk amongst senators has been in no way complimentary either to Mitchell or his friends on the committee who allowed him after earnest entreaty on his part to make the report He begged of them to let him do it as a part of the programme to secure his reelection to the senate As a curious coincidence and very significant this report was made on the 1st day of April all fools day and it is thought his main idea was either to fool the people of Oregon or the senate but from the way things are now shaping I am inclined to think that he will be the only one who will be fooled in the end On Tuesday he got up in the senate much chagrined and evidently put back in his little game and attempted to lecture Mr Windom for introducing his substitute and especially as he had the temerity to ignore the railroad committee and have the bill referred to the committee on public lands, of which Senator Grover is a member and who, with the rest of the committee will take up for consideration the Windom bill next Tuesday at which time the advocates of the bill will be heard

Mitchell thought it extraordinary that Windom should have the bill referred to the public land committee as he had given three months time on the consideration of his bill and only one member of the committee dissented from his views as he said Mr Windom in reply said he thought the conduct of Mitchell more than extraordinary and did not know that there was any rule that prevented him from his having bill sent to the lands committee as there were three members of the committee who did not approve Mitchell's bill thus giving a flat contradiction to Mitchell's statement The proof of the truth of Mr Windom's statement is herewith inclosed in the shape of a minority report presented to the senate yesterday, and referred as will be seen by Senators Windom Lamar, and Ransom In respect to this report which although a minority one there is little doubt but that it expresses the views of a large majority of the senate It is a curious coincidence that not one word is said in the city papers here to day about this report Its existence seems to be ignored altogether nor is there in the associated press reports to the papers all over the country, any mention made of this report so far as I have been able to examine the New York and other papers This goes to prove the unreliability and partiality of dispatches manipulated or suppressed through influence and shows how your people are habitually misled or kept in the dark on matters of such vital importance to the people of Oregon

Every indication now shows a clear disposition on the part of a majority of the senate to pass a measure that will be acceptable for the extension of the time for the construction of the North Pacific as an independent measure not hampered or borne down by the vagaries of Mitchell Mitchell knows well that his bill has not the ghost of a shadow of a chance to pass the senate He thinks he has secured his election again by the mere introduction of the report for which he importuned the members of the committee till at last they finally though very reluctantly consented If the people of Oregon cannot see through this most hollow and indefensible sham they have not got the common discernment of ordinary mortals There will be very full and elaborate arguments made on Tuesday next by Col Gray and others on behalf of the Northern Pacific before the public land committee of the senate Representative Williams your representative is also to be heard in opposition to to the Mitchell fiasco INDEPENDENT

The following is the colloquy between Mitchell and Windom, referred to in the above letter The former began by saying that Windom's course in introducing his bill and having it referred to the committee on public lands was very extraordinary the latter retorted with very plain intimations that the committee on railroads had not given the subject impartial consideration; that he had proposed the reference to the committee on public lands because he wanted it laid before a committee that would examine it without any prejudices and give a fair report upon it and that it had been incorrectly stated by Mitchell that there was but one dissenting voice in the committee on railroads to the Mitchell scheme Here is the passage

Mr Mitchell--I only desire to call attention to the matter now because it strikes me that the course taken was to say the least, a very extraordinary one that after the appropriate committee--and certainly the committee on railroads was the appropriate committee to consider that subject--had upon a careful and thorough investigation of some two or three months considered the whole subject and made a report with but one dissenting voice from the committee then a bill on the same subject should be introduced and referred to another committee, not the appropriate committee in my judgment to consider the matter I simply desire to call the attention of the committee on public lands to the history of the proceeding so that when they come to consider the bill they may understand the whole history of the case

Mr Windom--I was not aware that I was violating any rule of the senate or was guilty of any impropriety in making this reference

Mr Mitchell--I did not intimate that the senator from Minnesota had violated any rule of the senate but I did intimate and do say that the course taken by him was to say the least a very extraordinary and unusual course

Mr Windom--Nor was I aware that it was so very extraordinary If I were to deal in terms that are not quite parliamentary I should say the course taken by the honorable senator in the committee on railroads was very extraordinary, but I shall not apply the language to him which he has applied to me

Mr Mitchell--What does the senator refer to If he charges that I took a very extraordinary course in the committee on railroads?

Mr Windom--I think it is not proper now to state it.

Mr Mitchell--Very well the accusation is made and I should like to know what it is I am ready to meet any accusation of that kind made by the senator from Minnesota or any other senator

Mr Windom--One thing I say is extraordinary and I will state what it is The senator says there was but one dissenting voice to the bill which he reported

Mr Mitchell--And that is the fact

Mr Windom--I happen to know that there were at least three dissenting voices in the committee I do not know whether the senator knows it or not I know that fact

Mr Mitchell--The senator will allow me There was but one dissenting voice I do not know that that was material There are nine members of the committee as long as the senator has referred to that

Mr Windom--The senator from Oregon referred to it first or I should not have done so

Mr Mitchell--I referred to what took place in the senate I referred not to what took place in committee because I knew it was improper to do so I simply referred to the fact that the honorable senator from Minnesota had asked leave to make a minority report and that was granted him which was all proper. I will say, however, that the records of the committee will not bear out the statement made by the senator from Minnesota neither will the facts

Mr Windom--I shall not discuss what occurred in the senator's committee I am entirely willing to leave that to the recollection of the members of the committee themselves, as to which of us is right on that subject

Now as to the reference of the other bill to the committee on public lands I can see no impropriety in it whatever I think that committee may very fairly and very properly take the matter into consideration In the first place it is certainly a committee to whom the matters relating to public lands should be referred They understand that subject as well as anybody else It is a committee that I take it will examine that bill without any prejudices but that will give us a fair report upon it and that is all we want

The following is the minority report It is so thorough a dissection and refutation of the follies of Mitchell's propositions that it will be read here as an important and necessary part of the history of the subject. It confirms THE OREGONIAN'S first statement that only a bare majority of the committee agreed to report the bill six voting for it three against it and two being absent

The undersigned members of the committee on railroads cannot consent to the bill reported from that committee as an amendment to [illegible] and we respectfully report the following reasons of our dissent therefrom

The Northern Pacific Railroad Company has constructed under its charter [illegible] miles of road [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] country [illegible] [illegible] tribes of Indians [illegible] intelligent law abiding citizens have established happy and prosperous homes and are furnishing to the markets of the world [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] company [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] financial disaster of 1873 [illegible] the work of construction which to that time had been prosecuted with energy and vigor The bondholders in 1875 foreclosed the mortgage and purchased the mortgaged property which included by express authority of Congress the franchise to be a corporation and thus they became and are the owners of the rights privileges franchises and property originally conferred through it into existence through the charter Such are they who now ask of Congress the necessary extension of time to enable them to complete the work and it seems to us they present a meritorious case for the relief prayed for without unnecessarily crippling their resources or encumbering their enterprise with intolerable burdens We are not aware of any expressed objection to giving reasonable time for the completion of the road across the continent but the bill as reported is not in our opinion drawn with care to secure that object On the contrary should it become a law its effect we believe would be to defeat it

Money will be required to carry on the work and this can be obtained only on security deemed by practical men sufficient, certain and permanent In such case as this the primary security to be offered to capitalists is the grant of lands and this must be left to their control and management or investments based on that security will be sought in vain The registers and receivers of the district land offices are not expected to prove zealous or efficient agents to effect sales nor will they have the power or the means to put into operation the usual and necessary instrumentalities to attract settlers And by the provisions of the bill whatever money may be obtained by sales of the granted lands will be locked up in the Treasury beyond the reach of the trustees of the bond holders who otherwise would use it for that purpose so far as requisite

Section 4 of the bill provides that the lands included in the grant that is the odd sections, are to remain open to settlement and pre emption under existing laws to be sold at the price of two dollars and fifty cents per acre and section 11 provides that the even sections within the limits of the grant are to be subject to homestead as well as pre-emption entry The great body of those lands are unsurveyed and will remain so for many years If then a bona fide settler makes his home on unsurveyed lands intending to acquire title under the homestead laws and when the government surveys are extended over the land he shall be found on an odd section what will be his position Either he will lose his homestead right (as he must do for the odd sections are to be sold) or the railroad company must lose the price of the land there being no indemnity given This provision is a delusion and would operate as a fraud either upon the settler or the company

The provision in section 7 requiring the railroad company to sell all lands, except coal and mineral lands hereafter earned and patented to it in quantities not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres to any one person and for a price not exceeding two dollars and fifty cents per acre is not only arbitrary and unjust but practically excludes a large portion of the lands from sale The lands patented to the company became its absolute property and its right of disposing thereof should not be impaired In many cases the settler might not be able to pay cash down or might prefer to purchase on credit and the parties should be left free to make such arrangement as would be mutually convenient and desirable Immense tracts of these lands are suitable for grazing purposes only the restriction of the power of sale to one hundred and sixty acres to any one person renders such lands wholly unsalable Lands valuable only for the timber growing thereon cannot be acquired under the pre emption laws and the company should have the right to dispose of these in such parcels and on such terms as may be found practicable

The provisions of the bill so far as they relate to the subject of lands are crude imperfect and impracticable and are well calculated not only to defeat the object of the grant but also to hinder and retard settlement and embarrass settlers on the lands within the limits of the grant

The requirements of the bill respecting the time of commencing and prosecuting the work on the Pacific coast seem in the present condition of the monetary affairs of the country to be unreasonable, if not impossible Within nine months after the approval of the act the company is required to commence the work of construction and to complete at least one hundred miles within twelve months thereafter Of these one hundred miles at least twenty five miles must be commenced constructed and equipped on the Pacific coast at and within the same time In addition to this the road must be commenced at the cascades of the Columbia river within twelve months after the passage of the act and be fully completed and equipped around the cascades within one year and around the Dalles within two years thereafter When the difficulties and magnitude of the work on the Columbia river and the distance of the field of operations on the Pacific coast from the "base of supplies" are considered, it is apparent that these conditions are too onerous. Besides this, the bill requires in the first year's work the construction of a railroad bridge over Snake river, a stream of great volume and magnitude, whose wide rapid and dangerous current will require much time and the expenditure of large sums of money to span it. This condition seems wholly unnecessary because the navigable waters of the Columbia are reached from the east above the mouth of Snake river If it be intended to give this company the benefit of an extension of time, it ought not to be so given as to insure a failure to perform its conditions and to secure a liability to forfeiture at the very outset.

As before stated there has been no expression of objection from any quarter to a reasonable extension of time to this company all agree as to the justice policy and propriety of such an act But we cannot give our support to those provisions of this bill by which it is attempted to couple with such extension a proposed new grant of lands to another railroad thus making the success of the former to depend upon the carrying through of the latter This does not harmonize with our ideas of fair and proper legislation Each of these enterprises or projects ought to stand upon its own merits and not be permitted in the event of its failure, to pull the other down with it

The general route of the main line of the Northern Pacific Railroad is located on the north side of the Columbia river in the territory of Washington By the terms of the grant if the line be located in a state the company acquires only half the quantity of land to which it would be entitled if the line were located in a territory For the sake of harmonizing conflicting local interests on the Pacific coast and in a spirit of conciliation the company consented to change the location to the south side of the Columbia river in the state of Oregon By this change it loses one half of the land grant appertaining to so much of the line And because of this change made in the interest of Oregon, and at the request of its citizens this railway company is now sought to be burdened with conditions and hampered with exactions from which it would be entirely free if left to its present location on the north side of the river The south side of the Columbia river has been and is open to any company having the will and ability to build a railroad there but it was not until the Northern Pacific Railroad Company voluntarily agreed to build its road along the Columbia river in the state of Oregon at so great a sacrifice of its own interests that it was found to be necessary to encompass it with such restrictions and embarrass it with such hindrances as are provided in this bill in the interest of another railroad company which has been for years at perfect liberty to occupy the ground itself

For the foregoing reasons and because of other objections to and defects in the bill reported as an amendment to or rather a substitute for senate bill 285 we respectfully recommend that said bill do not pass

HOW IT CAME ABOUT

Advices by mail supplementing what has been received during three weeks past by telegraph furnish a very full history of proceedings at Washington on the railroad question By a bare majority Mr Mitchell got his bill reported from his senate committee But it was a bill which did not commend itself to the judgment and support even of those who had consented that it should be reported A counted bill was introduced at once and referred to the senate s committee on public lands Shortly afterward a minority report from the committee on railroads was submitted It is only necessary to read this report to see how completely it demolishes what Mr Mitchell attempted Not only are the absurdities of his bill exposed but a convincing argument is presented in favor of separation of the grants and placing each before congress on its own merits It was soon ascertained that the committee on public lands was opposed to Mitchell s bill, and would report the bill introduced by Mr Windom,—the same which had been favorably reported to the house Mr. Mitchell also discovered that this bill was likely to pass notwithstanding his opposition, while his own bill had not the shadow of a chance Flanked completely by this movement through the committee on public lands, and seeing the predicament in which he would be left in case the Windom bill should go through over his head, he was obliged to consent that the Salt Lake grant, with which he had for months hampered and loaded down the Northern Pacific, should be made the subject of a separate bill He could no longer retain the Salt Lake as part of the Northern Pacific, and thus prevent action in favor of the latter, because the measure had been put in such shape that it could probably go through, even against his opposition It was necessary then to find a way of retreat. Since the Salt Lake grant could no longer be made to hold back the Northern Pacific, a virtue was made of necessity and it was unloaded from the Northern Pacific bill. This being done the company assented readily to provisions in regard to sale of lands and to construction on the south side of the Columbia river These conditions could have been obtained from the first. They have been contended for by Senator Grover and Representative Williams, who have at the same time opposed Mitchell's scheme which, by requiring the company to begin at Portland or Kalama, and at the same time attempting to force the Northern Pacific bill to carry the Salt Lake grant, would have defeated every hope of a favorable result. In the shape in which it is now offered the bill is not the bill of Mr Mitchell, but rather that of Messrs Grover and Williams As for the Salt Lake grant, Mr. Mitchell appears to have lost interest in it since he was compelled to consent that it be put in as a separate bill, for though the Northern Pacific bill is making definite progress there is no announcement whatever in regard to the other This bill should not be neglected Even though Mr Mitchell may not care for it now, the people of Oregon strongly desire it.

By this long struggle and after all this delay no concessions have been made by the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, and no advantages have been gained for Oregon which could not have been secured months ago. It is, and all the time has been, extremely improbable that any bill for a Salt Lake grant can pass The Northern Pacific company therefore do not consider any of the provisions in regard to such road an embarrassment to them, now that they are rid of it as a rider to their own bill. They do not now suppose that grant will ever trouble them further. Hence they assent to the conditions in regard to the portage roads. They will build these roads within the time specified if they find it their interest to do so. Should they find it otherwise, they will pay no attention to this part of the bill, because such neglect only forfeits a portion of the land grant which is altogether without value. This analysis shows how little is really gained by the "concessions" said to have been obtained from the Northern Pacific company. Nothing is had which could not have been had at first After all, the great danger now is that in consequence of so much time having been wasted, even the Northern Pacific bill cannot pass during the present session of congress Mitchell has kept it back so long that failure for want of time is now very probable. Congress has been in session since last October—a period of more than six months. It is growing restive, and adjournment is agitated. The bill has only been reported to the senate branch of Congress. The Seattle Dispatch, showing how small is the hope now, after so long delay, says "When it passes that branch it goes to the house and will have to take its place in the regular order of business with hundreds of bills in every stage of legislation ahead of it If congress adjourns in June, as is now probable, it is not possible to reach a final vote upon it without a suspension of the rules, which requires a two-thirds vote, which is not very likely to be available." This is the present outlook, and to this condition have the vaunted labors of Mr. Mitchell brought our prospects of railroad legislation

DISCRIMINATION.

If the Standard wished to state facts candidly it would not say that "THE OREGONIAN, which supports the rest of the ticket, repudiates Mr. Hines." Very plainly THE OREGONIAN stated its reasons why the nomination of Mr. Hines "does not meet its fullest approval, and yet it also stated with equal plainness that "Republicans should support it because of important possible consequences." Every Republican desires that his party shall control the next house of representatives, and in particular this is desired because the senate will be under Democratic control And even if it be not possible to elect a majority of the house all Republicans desire that their party shall be strong in that body For years Democrats have been urging that it was not good that the country should be wholly under control of one party If this is so it certainly is not good that there should be no opposition to Democratic ascendency in congress Here are public reasons which outweigh objections felt to the nomination of Mr Hines yet those objections as stated by THE OREGONIAN were reasonable, and it was right, and candor required that they should be stated The exclusive partisanship of the Standard cannot comprehend anything of this kind Every nomination its own party makes is in its estimation, the best and most proper any party ever made and every candidate presented by its opponents is the worst and most unfit ever offered to the public Such journalism is not needed by these times Though we stated frankly that we regretted Mr Hines had been placed in a position which must occasion embarrassment a fact which would be acknowledged even by many who felt it a duty nevertheless to support him we do not forget that the ablest and best representative whom the Democrats of Oregon ever sent to congress was formerly a Methodist preacher and that he was elected by an almost unprecedented majority nor that the recent state Democratic convention nominated a Methodist preacher of the church south for one of the most important offices in the state True Mr Smith retired from the ministry mainly on account of ill health and Mr Emery has withdrawn from the Democratic ticket now because he does not wish to engage in politics but these facts do not afford the organs of the party with which these estimable men are associated the license they take to sneer and gibe at Mr Hines It is rude and coarse and they who are engaged in it ought to consider it unworthy of them Besides the objection they make to Mr Hines is not an objection in their estimation when it is applied to a candidate of their own party

A very significant piece of news which has not heretofore been noticed in this country comes through the English papers It is to the effect that the legislative council of India have found it necessary to pass and did pass unanimously, a bill for the better regulation of native newspapers the object of which is to enable the government to summarily suppress all seditious or immoral publications of the vernacular press—that is of the newspapers published in the native language This suppression in India of that freedom of the press which every Englishman prides himself upon as a part of his birthright is justified on the ground that since the outbreak of the Turko Russian war the native newspapers have been distinctly and openly seditious and upon the further ground that the effect of such seditious publications upon the lower classes of the native population is inflammatory and dangerous or, in other words, that England fears a revolt of her Mohammedan subjects in India

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—Yesterday afternoon officer Turner found a young man lying on the sidewalk at the corner of Front and Main streets, suffering apparently great physical pain On being asked by the officer what ailed him the person said he had taken strychnine with suicidal intent. Not being able to walk the officer called a passing hack and placing the sick man in it ordered the driver to go with all haste to the city jail This was done but so active was the poison working that by the time the police station was reached the young man was in convulsions. He was assisted from the vehicle and taken into the large cell and Dr Glass hastily summoned A powerful emetic was administered which soon emptied the would be suicides stomach An antidote was then given him, and the effect of the fatal drug neutralized as far as possible He soon grew easier and at an early hour last evening was able to walk about without assistance He gave his name to Capt Kelly as Marion Moore and says he lives in Lewis county, W T Moore informed the officer and physician that he has a brother and sister residing in that county also a brother and sister living in California When asked his reason for attempting to destroy himself Moore was reticent but when pressed he said he had been sick some time was without means and had grown weary of the burden of life A bottle labeled strychnine was found in his possession He appears to be about 21 years of age, and is rather prepossessing in appearance. Death would have soon followed had he not have received prompt medical attention Moore was considered beyond danger last evening He came to this city Saturday from his home, so he informed the officer.

EASTER SUNDAY AT TRINITY CHURCH —The fine audience room of Trinity Church was yesterday magnificently decorated with floral offerings from the ladies and children of the parish The Sunday School services at half past 9 were especially beautiful and impressive. At that hour the children, accompanied by their parents and teachers, assembled and were delighted with the splendid appearance the beautiful building presented The services were conducted by Bishop Morris, assisted by the Rev Mr Plummer. When the proper time came each class filed past a large wooden cross in the rear of the pulpit which had been perforated for the reception of bouquets, where each and every scholar deposited their floral tributes for its adorning. When all had been so disposed of the effect was very fine, indeed The chancel, choir and altar were also beautifully decorated with fragrant wreathes of flowers and sweet smelling leaves and boughs After this, the bishop called for more substantial offerings when each class, by its teacher, presented an envelope containing various sums amounting in the aggregate to $120, as high as $30 being found in a single envelope. What with party-colored Easter eggs for breakfast and such beautiful Easter services, the young people of Trinity parish are not likely soon to forget Easter Sunday, in the year of our Lord, 1878

DR. SMITH S LECTURE —Taylor street M. E church last evening was filled to its fullest capacity by an attentive and appreciative audience to listen to Dr. Matthew Hale Smith's sermon on the "Prodigal Son." Of the oratory of Dr Smith, it is safe to define it as "suaviter in modo" On this occasion the text announced was, "He wasted his substance in riotous living" The treatment of the subject was quite different from that usually chosen and possessed great attraction. The centrifugal forces of all prodigality were impersonated by the Great Teacher in this young man, and the speaker set these forth with his usual felicity and vividness, and many eyes moistened as these points were presented and beautifully illustrated. It is very certain that many hearts will be bettered and confirmed by the manly and Christian words uttered last evening by our distinguished visitor

FIRE ALARM.—Between 12 and 1 o'clock Saturday, a fire alarm was struck from box No. 15, near New Market Theater. The alarm brought out the department, but before the engines reached the supposed scene of the fire, it was ascertained that the new postoffice building was threatened. So away the several companies started, each intent on reaching the building first. On arriving there, the firemen were much disgusted to learn that the building was not in the least danger The alarm was occasioned by opening the pipes and blowing off the steam from the boiler in order to clear them out. It was a very foolish thing to strike the alarm from a box so remotely located from where it was supposed the fire existed—misleading the companies and costing them a long run for nothing PROPERLY SAID —The Oregon Churchman has the "The bishop has deposed from the ministry of the church the Rev Geo. Burton, late head master of the Grammar School. Mr Burton has left Oregon and gone to California. We have no heart to speak of the deep disgrace which the man has brought upon himself, nor of the sorrow his sin has caused his brethren We can only hope that he may live long enough to thoroughly repent and make some restitution, by a noble life, for the great evil he has done in the past.

DIED.—About 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon little Mamie Eliot, daughter of Rev. T. L. Eliot departed this life after a brief but painful illness Funeral will take place to-day at 1 o'clock Deceased was in the 10th year of her age, and was a child of unusual brightness and promise In this, their sore bereavement, the afflicted parents have the sincere sympathy of the community.

CRICKET.—This afternoon the Portland Cricket Club will inaugurate the season of 1878 by an amateur match on their grounds at south Portland All admirers of the time-honored game are invited to be present and participate, and members of the club are especially requested by the executive committee to meet promptly Wickets will be pitched at half past two o clock

PROPOSED HOTEL BUILDING —We have seen plans for a proposed hotel in a central location which will cover ground 100 by 200 feet The parties owning the property do not intend to build until they can arrange satisfactorily with men of capital and experience in the business. Piper & Knapp, the architects, will confer with parties who mean business

LAST LECTURE TO-NIGHT —Dr Mathew Hale Smith will deliver his lecture on "Old Time Folks" at the Taylor street M E. Church, to-night. It is said to be instructive and entertaining, and will be delivered in the Doctor's usual eloquent and forcible style Those who have not heard Dr Smith should not miss this opportunity

ADJOURNED SCHOOL MEETING —The attention of the public is called to the adjourned school meeting to be held at the courthouse this (Monday) evening to hear the report of the committee appointed at last meeting and to levy a tax for school expenses for the ensuing year

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY —Mr I. H Gove and his estimable lady celebrated the 20th anniversary of their union last Saturday A large number of their friends were present and a most enjoyable time was experienced Numerous appropriate presents were donated.

YOUR NAME PLEASE —If the person who wrote a letter to Special Agent Steel in regard to mail matters dated Salem Oregon April 17th and signed Republican will make his name known to Mr Steel the complaint he makes will receive prompt attention

LAID UP—BEING REFITTED The steamer City of Salem has gone into the dry dock at Oregon City for a refit [illegible] preparatory to entering on the summer trade on the Upper Willamette

POSTPONED On account of the lecture of Dr Smith this evening the meeting of the Neighborlies is postponed until to morrow evening

NDAY MORNING, APRIL 22 1878

CITY.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—Yesterday afternoon [illegible] Turner found a young man lying on the sidewalk at the corner of Front and Main apparently in great physical suffering. On being asked by the officer what ailed him, the person said he had taken strychnine, with suicidal intent. Not being able to walk the officer called a passing hack and placing the sick man in it ordered the driver to go with all haste to the city jail. This was done, but so active was the poison working that by the time the police station was reached the young man was in convulsions. He was assisted from the vehicle and taken into the large cell and Dr Glass hastily summoned. A powerful emetic was administered, which soon emptied the would be suicide's stomach. An antidote was then given and the effect of the fatal drug neutralized as far as possible. He soon grew quieted and at an early hour last evening was able to walk about without assistance. He gave his name to Capt Kelly as Marion Moore, and says he lives in Lewis county, W T. Moore informed the officer and physician that he has a brother and sister residing in this county, also a brother and sister living in California. When asked his reason for attempting to destroy himself Moore was reticent, but when pressed, he said he had been out some time, was without means and had grown weary of the burden of life. A bottle of strychnine was found in his possession. He appears to be about 21 years of age and is rather prepossessing in appearance. He would have soon followed had he not received prompt medical attention. He was considered beyond danger last evening. He came to this city Saturday from [illegible], so he informed the officer.

EASTER SUNDAY AT TRINITY CHURCH.—The Sunday school room of Trinity Church was magnificently decorated with floral offerings from the ladies and children of the parish. The Sunday School services at half past [illegible] were especially beautiful and impressive. At that hour the children, accompanied by their parents and teachers, assembled and were delighted with the splendid appearance the beautiful building presented. The services were conducted by Bishop Morris assisted by the Rev. Mr. Plummer. When the appointed time came each class filed past a large cross in the rear of the pulpit which had been perforated for the reception of bouquets, and there each and every scholar deposited their floral tributes for its adorning. When all had been disposed of the effect was very fine indeed. The chancel, choir and altar were also beautifully decorated with fragrant wreaths of flowers and sweet smelling leaves and bouquets. After this, the bishop called for the Easter offerings when each class by its teacher, presented an envelope containing various sums amounting in the aggregate to [illegible], as high as $50 being found in a single envelope. What with party-colored Easter eggs for breakfast and such beautiful Easter services, the young people of Trinity parish are not likely soon to forget Easter Sunday, in the year of our Lord, 1878.

DR. SMITH'S LECTURE.—Taylor street M E church last evening was filled to its fullest capacity by an attentive and appreciative audience to listen to Dr. Matthew Hale Smith's sermon on the "Prodigal Son." Of the oratory of Dr. Smith, it is safe to define it as "[illegible] modo." On this occasion the text announced was, "He wasted his substance in riotous living." The treatment of the subject was quite different from that usually chosen, and possessed great attractions. The centrifugal forces of all prodigality were impersonated by the Great Teacher in the young man; and the speaker set these forth with his usual felicity and vividness, and many eyes moistened as these points were expanded and beautifully illustrated. It is very certain, that many hearts will be bettered and confirmed by the manly and Christian words uttered last evening by our distinguished visitor.

FIRE ALARM.—Between 12 and 1 o'clock Saturday a fire alarm was struck from box [illegible], near New Market Theater. The alarm brought out the department, but before the engines reached the supposed scene of the fire, it was ascertained that the new post-office building was threatened. So away the several companies started, each intent on reaching the building first. On arriving there the firemen were much disgusted to learn that the building was not in the least danger. The alarm was occasioned by opening the pipe and blowing off the steam from the boilers in order to clear them out. It was a very foolish thing to strike the alarm from the box so remotely located from where it was supposed the fire existed—misleading the companies and costing them a long run for nothing.

DEPOSED FROM HIS.—The Oregon Churchman has this: "The bishop has deposed from the ministry of the church, the Rev. Geo Burton, the head master of the Grammar School who has left Oregon and gone to California. We have no heart to speak of the deep disgrace which the man has brought upon himself, nor of the sorrow his sin has caused his brethren. We can only hope that he may live long enough to thoroughly repent and make some restitution, by a noble life for the great evil he has done in the past."

DIED.—About 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon little Mamie Eliot, daughter of Rev T L Eliot, departed this life after a brief but painful illness. Funeral will take place to-day at [illegible] o'clock. Deceased was in the 10th year of her age, and was a child of unusual brightness and promise. In this, their sore bereavement, the afflicted parents have the deep sympathy of the community.

CRICKET.—This afternoon the Portland Cricket Club will inaugurate the season of '78 by an amateur match on their grounds in South Portland. All admirers of the time honored game are invited to be present and participate, and members of the club are especially requested by the executive committee to meet promptly. Wickets will be pitched at half past two o'clock.

PROPOSED HOTEL BUILDING.—We have seen plans for a proposed hotel in a central location which will cover ground 100 by 200 feet. The parties owning the property do not intend to build until they can arrange satisfactorily with men of capital and experience in the business. Piper & Knapp, the architects will confer with parties who mean business.

LECTURE TO-NIGHT.—Dr Mathew Hale Smith will deliver his lecture on "Old Time Folks" at the Taylor street M. E. Church, to-night. It is said to be instructive and entertaining, and will be delivered in the Doctor's well known eloquent and forcible style. Those who have not heard Dr. Smith should not miss this opportunity.

ADJOURNED SCHOOL MEETING.—The attention of the public is called to the adjourned school meeting to be held at the court-house this (Monday) evening, to hear the report of the committee appointed at last meeting and to levy a tax for school expenses for the ensuing year.

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY.—Mr I. H Gove and his estimable lady celebrated the 20th anniversary of their union last Saturday. A large number of their friends were present and a most enjoyable time was experienced. Numerous appropriate presents were donated.

YOUR NAME, PLEASE.—If the person who wrote a letter to Special Agent Steel in regard to mail matters, dated Salem Oregon April 17th, and signed "Republican" will make his name known to Mr Steel, the complaint he makes will receive prompt attention.

LAID UP—BEING REPAIRED.—The steamer City of Salem has gone into the dry dock at Oregon City for careful overhauling preparatory to entering on her summer trade on the Upper Willamette.

POSTPONED.—On account of the lecture of Dr Smith this evening the meeting of the Neighborhoods is postponed until to-morrow evening.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.—A decision will be announced this morning in the case of Town vs. De Haven et ux, et al by Judge Deady.

REPUBLICAN RALLY!

Grand Ratification Meeting at Oro Fino Hall.

SPEECHES BY HON H K HINES, [illegible]

One of the largest and most enthusiastic political meetings which has been held for some time in this city took place at Oro Fino Hall last Saturday evening. Strains of music were heard to proceed from the balcony in front of the hall shortly after half past seven and [illegible] were seen to shoot skyward at intervals. [illegible] the desperate rendezvous and [illegible] the large and spacious hall was filled to overflowing. After a lively air by the band the immense assembly was called to order by Gov A C Gibbs who acted as chairman of the meeting.

On the platform were seated the following gentlemen: J Q A [illegible], Max Muller, Simon [illegible], L O Stearns, Dr W H Watkins, W J Snodgrass, B F Dowell, [illegible] Lewis of Washington Territory, H L [illegible], T W Davenport, W J [illegible], David Goodsell, M C George, J N Dolph, C W Yocum, R P Earhart.

After calling the meeting to order Gov. Gibbs advanced to the edge of the platform and said:

Fellow Citizens: I now have the honor of introducing to you the next member of congress from the state of Oregon, Mr H K Hines, who I am happy to say is able to speak for himself.

Amidst long and hearty applause

HON HALVEY K HINES

Came forward and spoke substantially as follows:

Mr President and Fellow Citizens of Portland and Oregon: This vast concourse of people assembled to ratify the nominations of the late Republican convention is an evidence that the prophetic introduction I have just received will be an accomplished fact on the first Monday in June next. To be chosen as one of the standard bearers of the great Republican party of Oregon in the campaign now opening is an honor to which any man however exalted his position might well aspire. But yet against my own choice against my own feelings that position has been tendered me. To accept that nomination and go before the people of the state and plead the cause of that party has been one of the severest trials of my life. But with a wish and an impulse to decline absolutely to do so I felt it impossible to refuse to stand in the place assigned me by the convention. So I take the banner, and through all the conflict will use whatever of ability I have to bear it on to victory and in June next the [illegible] triumph will perch upon it and the state will be redeemed from the rule, or rather misrule of the Democratic party. Another word personal may be permitted. For a man whose life has been cast in the mold of mine, whose work has been like mine it might be supposed he would know but little of the rules of political life, or of the principles of statesmanship. Yet I was trained in the school of Henry Clay and have been a careful observer of the events of our national political history and the principles that underlie our government from that day to this have marked the march of ideas that gave birth to the Republican party, and built it up until the breaking bonds of three and a half millions of slaves proclaimed the assured ascendency of those ideas in the American union.

This is a meeting for ratifying the nominations made by the late Republican convention and I may be indulged in a word as to the candidates. For all the qualifications that ought to recommend men to the favorable consideration of the people my colleagues on the ticket have never been excelled if they have ever been equaled by the nominations of any convention in the history of the state.

Take the candidate for governor—C C Beekman. All testimonials are to the effect that he is eminently qualified for the peculiar duties that will devolve upon him as an executive officer. He will surely be the governor of the state for the succeeding term.

Next to him is a name that all over Oregon means success—Rockey P Earhart the next secretary of state. And thus, without naming them all through the list—men of intelligence of integrity, who will make the state in government what she is by nature—the grandest of the Union.

The canvas that is opening will be one we trust, worthy of the party and of the state. For my part I intend by every argument I can command to present the facts that interest the people and to do this without ribaldry or offensive personalities. Vulgarity is not argument. Ribaldry is not fact, and I desire to present only truth and argument founded upon it. The principles involved in the canvas will be the reasons why Oregon should put the Republican party in charge of the state government. When the affairs of the past eight years are brought to review the reasons will be so conclusive that there can be no earthly doubt but the voters of this state will put the state government into the hands of the men nominated at Salem.

Then another question will be the reason why Oregon should maintain her fealty to the great Republican party of this union. She has always since 1860 when the party has been united been Republican by a large majority, and to day is not less than 1 500 and with the party united as it is to day, she will have an honored place in the ranks of that party that has made the United States the greatest nation of the world. All this will receive in due time proper attention.

On questions of finance—of the tariff—the record and principles of the Democratic party will be thoroughly examined. During the past eighteen years financially our nation has passed through a great many changes. The war made promises to pay a necessity. The war went on. Its pressure was fearful. A doubt among the people of our own country and of the world of our ability to stand the storm gradually pushed these promises to pay down to forty cents on the dollar. The world feared that the government must go down. But the war closed for the government. These premiums went up to 60 cents 70 cents 80 cents 90 cents and are to day worth 100 cents to the dollar, and yet the Democratic party is opposed to resumption and in favor of the repeal of the resumption act. The public prosperity individual prosperity, is involved in these facts but I will not discuss them to night but only indicate that in them will be found the reasons why Oregon should stand as one of the great Republican states as by the principles of that party she is to be made the great empire state of the union.

There are only three men in Congress to represent the great State of Oregon. A State so great in area and in resources must be represented by men knowing themselves her capabilities and her wants. I care not what walk in life a man may come from so he has observation enough to know the wants of the State brain enough to comprehend her needs and energy enough to push her cause so as not to suffer defeat. A Representative in Congress from Oregon has something to do besides sitting in the House and drawing his pay. He should plead the cause of Oregon and turn the tides of emigration which now flow mainly elsewhere to our shores bringing men and women and money and prosperity and greatness to our State. I do not in these words impeach the work of any who have preceded me—for I am going there—but I suppose the Convention thought that I could do it a little better than they.

Eastern Oregon is the larger part of the state in area and in capability of production but she is locked up and isolated from easy and cheap channels of communication. She needs, and must have a line of communication connecting the Columbia river and Portland with the eastern states. We must have competing lines—cheap and rapid transportation. Portland sends Eastern Oregon more than she sends the Willamette valley. The future granaries of Oregon are east of the Cascade mountains. Portland must link Eastern Oregon to herself by the free flow of a free river to insure her own greatness and make her not only a commercial port but give her a population of a hundred or two hundred thousand in the next decade and make her beyond doubt the great commercial center of the northwest coast forever.

And now fellow citizens having spoken longer than I ought, I have but to say that I shall meet and address you again and discuss propositions that I have but indicated to night. I shall do so avoiding all offensive personalities—all things that I might regret—will treat men as men but state facts as best I can and make arguments as strong and hard as I can. To the best of my ability in my way and place for twenty five years I have done service for Oregon. [I] was here at the laying of the corner stone of the state and desire to see her in the splendor that is sure to crown her in June next. I will be with you in the van of the conflict—you will be with me in the shout of the victory.

At the conclusion of Mr. Hines' speech a dashing air was discoursed by the band, after which

JUDGE L O STEARNS

Of Baker county was introduced by the chairman. Judge Stearns said that when he looked at the growing and beautiful city of Portland, its educational and charitable institutions its commercial enterprise the number of substantial buildings and palatial residences and considered the intelligence of its inhabitants he felt proud to say that he was a citizen of Oregon. After paying a handsome and not undeserved compliment to this city and also to the entire state the speaker said he supposed it was expected of him to ratify the action of the Republican convention. To all he would say that he did ratify. He heartily endorsed the platform adopted by the convention and all the nominations. The men chosen as standard bearers were all true Republicans and well worthy of the undivided support of the party. It is one of the strongest and best tickets which has been put into the field for years and he firmly believed that the people would endorse it at the polls in June next. For one he was perfectly satisfied with the action of the convention and he thought it had met with the unqualified approval of the Republican party in Oregon. Having chosen good men to act as standard bearers it was the duty of all Republicans to earnestly give their support and elect the ticket. Now was the time to bury all petty and personal differences and to present a united front to the Democracy. The speaker dwelt for some time on the finance question discussing it with much force [illegible]. Judge Stearns said he had labored [illegible] for the party [illegible] years in this state and [illegible]. He would support the ticket and [illegible] Republican in the state would do the same [illegible] party will be triumphant. His remarks were [illegible] well timed and received by frequent demonstrations of approval.

HON [illegible]

Was next introduced. He [illegible] of the state convention. Both the platform and nominations met with his hearty endorsement and he believed the Republicans would ratify the nominations at the polls. He spoke of Mr Hines the nominee for congress in very complimentary terms. He was a man of undoubted ability, of unquestioned honesty and a resident of Oregon and well qualified in every particular to represent the interests of the whole state in the national congress. His interests had been intimately identified with the growth of Oregon for the last quarter of a century [illegible]. His creed was [illegible] political [illegible]. R P Earhart [illegible]. Mr Dolph spoke of the candidate for [illegible], and said that every one if elected, would bring to the discharge of the duties imposed capability and honesty. He also paid Hon J F Caples a high compliment. That gentleman the speaker said was the Republican candidate for the office of prosecuting attorney for the 4th judicial district and would beyond doubt be elected. He was a well known member of the Portland bar and would make a very capable and efficient [illegible]. His eloquence which had so often cheated the [illegible] of a state prison would be no less efficiently employed in having the laws properly enforced and criminals brought to justice. Mr Dolph spoke for a few minutes in regard to the Democratic state administration for the past eight years. He showed up the peculations and corrupt administration under Grover and Chadwick in scathing terms. His arraignment of the state government was presented in the strongest possible light and the speaker in the course of his remarks administered many telling blows to the corrupt ring of Salem politicians. In conclusion the speaker urged the party to cement all past differences to be united in its support of the ticket and victory was an assured fact. Loud and prolonged calls were made for

HON J F CAPLES

Who amid great applause came forward and mounted the rostrum. In presenting Mr Caples to the crowd Gov Gibbs said: "Gentlemen, I take great pleasure in introducing to you a well known prominent and able member of the Portland bar a candidate for the office of prosecuting attorney for this judicial district. I feel certain that he will be elected and if so, will make a competent and efficient officer." This announcement was the signal for a burst of applause which fairly made the rafters laugh. Coming forward in response to call Mr Caples made one of his characteristic speeches. He occupied about 15 minutes, during which time he kept the immense assemblage either laughing, or cheering and when he retired it was amidst the most uproarious applause. What was said of Sampson may truthfully be repeated concerning Mr Caples speech—he brought down the house with a vengeance.

HON M C GEORGE

Was the next speaker. He said he would not detain the crowd but for just a moment. He wished to state the reason briefly why the Republican convention placed in nomination a minister for congress. The Greenbackers had nominated Rev Mr Campbell and the Democrats had nominated Whiteaker. Now the Republicans propose to have Mr Hines ride around the political circuit on the Campbell to preach the funeral discourse of Whiteaker next June.

HON DAVID GOODSELL

Was introduced and made a short but very forcible speech showing how the public treasury of this state had been plundered by the corrupt administration and how the people's moneys had been shamelessly diverted from the proper channels. He proceeded to read from the published reports of Gov Gibbs, Gov Woods, Gov Grover instituting comparisons and showing how extravagant had been the administration of Grover. The speaker said in conclusion that he endorsed the platform and the candidates and called upon all Republicans to rally to its support to work earnestly for the good cause, and victory was certain to perch upon our banners.

HON T W DAVENPORT

Came next on the list. On coming forward Mr Davenport said: "Fellow citizens—I suppose all you want to know is do I ratify? I was conspicuous four years ago in running on an independent ticket for congress. I spoke my sentiments then. I hold the same now. Party organizations are voluntary. I never scratched a republican ticket. When the party is headed right I vote it; when it is headed wrong you can count on me. I always believed that the republican contained the great principles of the government. The machine was not right. Now I believe the party is in good condition. I believe these gentlemen can be elected. I have not read the platform but understand that it is sound. I believe in sound currency. I do not believe in trying to make 92 cents worth $1. As well make your yard stick shorter in order to get cloth cheaper or lessen the pound weight to get coffee cheaper. It will react on the laboring man and injure him and him only. There is no objection to the personnel of the ticket and believe we can elect it by 1 00 majority."

B F DOWELL

Was next called and gave a short personal sketch of Mr C C Beekman the candidate for governor. He said he had been an Old Line Whig, was born in the town of Dundee in the great state of New York and had emigrated to this state in 185[illegible]. Since that time Mr Beekman had been a citizen of Southern Oregon. He was an honorable and capable gentleman. By honesty, enterprise and industry he had acquired a handsome fortune. Mr Beekman was a shrewd active business man and a good financier. If elected the speaker said he believed he would be able to bring this state out of debt. One thing could be said in favor of Mr Beekman he was an honest man and under his administration there would be no peculations and no plundering of the public funds. Mr Beekman had ever been a consistent and unswerving Republican. He had for years been connected with a large business house in Jacksonville. During the time he had been acting as agent millions had passed through his hands and not one dollar had stuck to them. The speaker said he approved the nominations made by the convention and indorsed the platform. He should labor earnestly for the success of the ticket and urged every Republican to do the same.

MR W T WALKER

Of Union county, was called and spoke for a few minutes. He was in hearty sympathy with the speakers who had preceded him. Both the platform and nominations met with his endorsement. He should go back to Eastern Oregon and labor to secure the success of the party. The time was past when it could be said in his county that a nomination on the Democratic ticket was equivalent to election. The recruits of Price's army had been turned out and the Democracy could no longer confidently anticipate their majority. The speaker said he was born a Republican—that is the first vote he ever cast was for that party. He had never yet scratched the ticket. If the party worked unitedly there was no [illegible] the triumph of the ticket in this state.

MR W J SNODGRASS

of Eastern Oregon, was introduced and made a brief but neat little speech endorsing the nominations and pledging himself to support the ticket.

Governor Gibbs then stated that the meeting was adjourned proposing in conclusion three cheers for the Republican party and three for the candidates. These were given with an earnestness and force which made the building tremble. The band played "Marching Through Georgia" with much gusto and the vast crowd poured out of the hall.

NEW CLOTHING STORE.—M Rosenblatt has just returned from San Francisco with a large and well selected stock of clothing—consisting of youths' size of boys' clothing as well as men's clothing in the latest styles—which he is prepared to sell cheaper than any other house in the city. Be sure to call before you buy.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success
IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL
Chronic and Difficult Diseases,

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS

public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female. He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease, in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease, mentally and physically, he has restored them to health and happiness, for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases: Catarrh, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and chest, by an entirely new system only known to himself, Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, including Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood. In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success, not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of, and never fails to give relief at once, and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time.

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints, and understands their delicate and refined organization, as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health.

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE

over most physicians—he can tell the patients' disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual. This accounts in part for his great professional success.

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand, and the patient need not fear the result.

will send to those living at a distance and who cannot well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally, and will forward the proper medicines, or instruments, to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions, must contain two postage stamps.

Everything strictly confidential and honorable.

THE DOCTOR

has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe, and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify.

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland, requiring medical treatment of the proper kind, who desire to consult with me, will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so-called Doctors, through pretended friendship for the patients' Look out for them: they are knaves, prompted by selfish motives and what they can make. Be sure and ask for DR. PAUL M. BRENAN, the Medical Lecturer, and read his sign on his door.

TRUST INVESTMENT COMPANY OF SCOTLAND.
Office, 45 First street, Portland.

Mortgage Loans at Ten per cent. on Real Estate Security only.

MONEY TO LOAN AT ALL TIMES FOR periods of three to five years, repayable by annual installments or in one sum, just as the borrower may prefer when he takes the Loan.

Persons desiring to build their own Homes in Portland, or Farmers wishing to improve their Farms and repay the cost of their improvements by half-yearly or annual payments (instead of paying away rents) are recommended to try the Trust Company's Installment (Building) Plan.

Installment Plan, 10 per cent.

$151 every half year for four years wipes off every $1,000 borrowed, interest included. $123 to every $1,000 every half year for five years wipes off every $1,000 borrowed, interest included. In no instance and under no circumstances will the company loan enough money to induce borrowers to allow a foreclosure.

VOL XVIII.--NO. 68

GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Heavy Storm.

DEADWOOD, D. T., April 21.—The heaviest storm ever known in the hills has been raging since the night of the 16th; heavy snow, rain and hail doing much damage to placer mines and shafts in gulches by flooding. Operations in quartz mills are almost entirely suspended. Roads are impassable and the snow still falling.

Sioux on the War Path.

First appearance of Indians in three months was last Saturday. Deputy Sheriff Wilson, arriving from Belle Fourche, reports his narrow escape from a party of hostile Sioux evidently en route to join Sitting Bull.

Liberian Emigration.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 21.—The negroes of Charleston have been extensively excited for several days past in hourly expectation of the sailing of the bark Azor with the first ship load of emigrants sent to Africa by the Liberian Exodus Association. Various circumstances, however, have delayed her departure, the main impediments being a want of cash and a propensity of the blacks to dispute all precautions of the customs officers to crowd a larger number of passengers between decks than the law allows. The task of examining the ship and landing surplus immigration was performed no less than three times, and it was not until a guard was put aboard by the collector that the bark could be kept in condition to be properly cleared. Yesterday, however, all arrangements were completed and about eight o'clock this morning the Azor, being towed out to sea by a tug, was accompanied to the bar by two harbor steamers crowded with black excursionists, while the whole battery and wharves were thronged with thousands of negroes shouting and waving hats and handkerchiefs as the bark bore out to sea. The Azor carries 250 passengers, about one-fifth of whom are young children.

Death of Mr. Orton.

NEW YORK, April 22.—William Orton, president of the W. U. T. Co., died at his residence at 7:30 this morning of apoplexy.

Trying to Beat O'Leary's Time.

NEW YORK, April 22.—John Hughs, Harry Hill's "unknown," commenced his effort tonight at Central Park Garden to beat O'Leary's record in London. He started on the run at 8:22, and made the first 10 miles in 1 hour, 5 minutes and 9 seconds, finishing the first 15 miles in 1 hour, 40 minutes and 57 seconds.

Fixing Things with Samoa.

NEW YORK, April 22.—The steamer Clyde sailed for Aspinwall to-day. Among the passengers are M. K. La Mamea, Samoan ambassador, and Gustavus Goward, commissioner on part of the United States, who returns to Samoa to ratify recent treaties entered into by the United States government. On the arrival of the ambassador at Panama he will be met by Mr. Colmesnie, who left here a few weeks since via San Francisco, and the party will proceed to Samoa on the sloop of war Adams, which vessel has been placed at the disposal of the ambassador. Hemarnea, after a short stay, will return to the United States and afterward proceed to England and France.

Indian Raiders.

NEW ORLEANS, April 22.—The Galveston News' Lerdo special says the raiding Indians have returned into Mexico, where they are being pursued by Mexican troops, who may possibly overtake them before they reach the Santa Rosa mountains. Nine men were killed in the vicinity of Lerdo, and 400 horses driven off.

Swallowed in a Vortex.

MEMPHIS, April 22.—On last Thursday night, while a party of men were engaged in cutting the back levee near the lower end of Lake Bolivar, in Bolivar county, Mississippi, to let off the heavy body of water caused by unprecedented rains, the whole party were caught in a sluice, and, with the exception of Captain Briscoe, all were swallowed up in a vortex. Briscoe was rescued after being more than an hour in the water and quicksand.

Great Hail and Rain Storm.

GALESBURG, Ill., April 22.—Last night a terrible rain and hail storm struck this city. The hail was of prodigious size. Much glass was broken and many fruit trees badly damaged by the hail and rain.

WALL LAKE, Iowa, April 22.—A fierce tornado struck this town yesterday, destroying part of it. Three persons were hurt.

STORM LAKE, Iowa, April 22.—A wind storm did serious damage here yesterday. Several persons in this vicinity are reported killed.

DUBUQUE, April 22.—A storm at Pomeroy, a small station on the Illinois Central in Iowa, blew down a number of houses, killed a son of George Wallace and a son of Mr. Pearce, and wounded 15 or 20 other persons. The details are meagre. Seven miles of telegraph wire are blown down.

SIOUX CITY, April 22.—The storm began about 3:30 Sunday, and swept from southwest to northeast. In this section the towns damaged were Stormlake, Fonda and Pomeroy. Trees were torn up and the country presented the appearance of being ravaged by a terrible cyclone. A man named Reilly was carried bodily over a house and tree tops and set down uninjured. Cattle were hurled off long distances and killed. Hailstones fell fastened together in great masses. After the wind subsided the town of Stormlake was filled with country people looking for physicians and surgeons. Alfred King's residence was lifted from the ground and dashed to a thousand pieces. His mother was instantly killed. A buggy of his was carried a quarter of a mile through the air. The damage south of Stormlake is believed to be very great. It is reported that four were killed and fifty wounded. In Griffith an unknown man had the top of his head taken off by a sharp board. At Pomeroy, Chas. Pearce was killed by falling timber. Mrs. Wallace and family, injured by the house blowing down, are not expected to live.

Falling Elevator.

CHICAGO, April 22.—The elevator of the Home Sewing Machine fell from the roof to the basement this afternoon with ten persons, a distance of 85 feet. Only one escaped unhurt, but none were dangerously hurt.

Stole a Ride to Death.

ST. LOUIS, April 22.—Two unknown tramps who were stealing a ride on a freight train on the St. Louis Iron Mountain Railroad, were killed by the ditching of nine cars near Hemstile this morning.

Triple Hanging.

FRANKLIN, La., April 22.—Jackson Edwards, Wesley Turner and Alexander Brown, all colored, were hanged to day in the presence of a large crowd. A priest offered prayer on the scaffold, to which the condemned listened attentively. Edwards spoke briefly, acknowledging his crime, caused by whisky. Brown confessed his crime and believed God would forgive him. Turner declared his entire innocence and placed the charge of guilt on another man. When the drop fell Brown's knot came untied and his body fell to the ground. He was taken back to the jail until the scaffold was fixed, when he was swung off a second time. Good order prevailed.

ARIZONA.

Very Rich Mines.

FORT YUMA, April 22.—Capt. H. W. Connolly, owner of the Wana Whata silver mine, Pioneer district, is on his way to San Francisco with thirty sacks of Wana Whata ore of the assay value of $1,000 per ton, and 500 pounds of specimens of horn silver, very rich. The captain says the Baldwin mill will be running in twenty days on Wana Whata ore. All the mines on the Silver King fissure vein are looking fine and opening up with entire satisfaction, to those interested, for a distance of 10 miles. Captain Connolly goes to San Francisco especially for the purpose of procuring fire brick for a furnace. He intends refining his own concentrations, and will ship bullion to San Francisco within two months
